BIOGRAPHY

Dev Harlan works in sculpture, installation and digital media. He has had solo exhibitions with Christopher Henry Gallery, Gallery Madison Park, and Northern-Southern. Major group shows include "Noor" at the Sharjah Art Museum, the New Museum's "Ideas City" festival, the Singapore Light Art Festival, and the SUNY Oswego Sculpture Program. He has also completed corporate commissions for Canon, Target and Y-3/Adidas.

Dev is a NYFA Fellowship Finalist in Digital Media Arts. He has been an artist in residence at the Frank Lloyd Wright School Of Architecture, the SVA Sculpture & Digital Media Program and the Joshua Tree Highlands Residency. He has been a teacher and guest critic for the International Design & Architecture program at Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok, and a guest lecturer at NYU ITP. He is a self educated artist and designer and maintains an active studio practice founded on experience, self directed study and curiosity.
